ACTIVITIES

Why keep time when you're having fun??

PROJECT GREAT

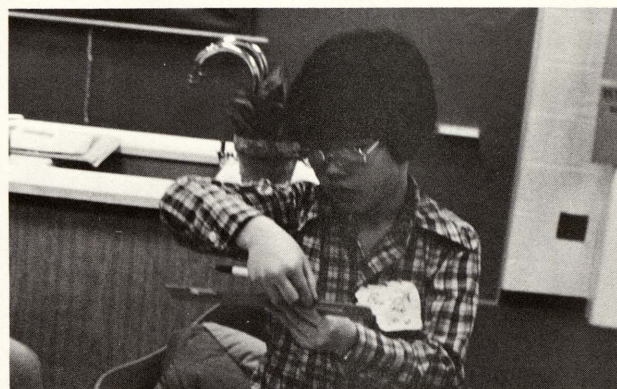

Project Great students have a good time at Mackinaw Middle School. There are students from all three middle schools. They learn about psychology, creative writing and people. The pupils do not get grades, but they do get progress reports.

Ben Park looks over a grade scale.

Lisa Murphy, Kerry Muehlenbeck, Laura Murphy and Jenelle Kolosky listen to a lecture at the Enrichment Center.

Sue Bricker, John Jacoby, Jenelle Kolosky and Kerry Muehlenbeck work together in the Enrichment Center.

GREAT BOOKS

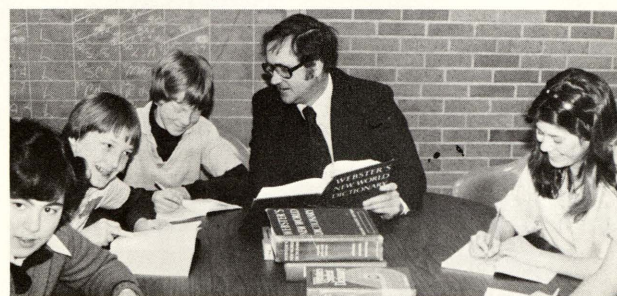

At Chippewa selected students have the opportunity to participate in an informal reading and discussion program called Great Books. The readings include writings by famous authors. There are no grades only the pleasure of the student thinking for himself.

Mrs. Lloyd questions Stacy Kingsbury and other 6th Grade Great Book Students.

Mr. Billeter discusses a point in the JUNGLE BOOKS with 5th Grade Great Book Members Mrs. Kingsbury, Laura Henderson, and Lori Diehl.

7th Grade Great Book Students Cathy Priest, Jim Clark, Tom Haegar, and Amy Schwanbeck use the dictionary to clarify the meaning of a word with Mr. Cleveland.

HUSH DAY

Scot Lierman, Steve Burgess, Bob Urche, Joe Loiacano won the honor MR. IRRESISTIBLE.

Julie Wreggelsworth, Yungdong Kim, Amy McQuillan, Mary Miller and Heather Herrick are the winners of MISS IRRESISTIBLE.

Hush Day is always exciting at Chippewa. The boys try to get the girls to talk. If a girl should talk she must forfeit her "Hush Button". At the end of the day the boy with the most "Hush Buttons" is declared MR. IRRESISTIBLE. At another date a similar day is held to determine MISS IRRESISTIBLE.

— REMEMBER 50'S DAY — 1978 —

50's Day '78" was exciting. Almost all the girls and boys wore 50's clothing. During noon hour the judges chose winners for the 5th and 6th grade — Bryan Carroll, Mike Nicholason, Sue Heath, Shelly Dufort. In the 7th and 8th grade — Tony Bear, Bradford Hammerschmidt, Carrie Ellingsworth, and Becky Ginther won. The winners were put into couples for a dance.

HAT DAY

The highlight of March is Hat Day. Everyone wears some kind of hat. The students and teachers try to wear a hat that fits into the categories of the most sporty hat, the most colorful hat, and the most original hat.

Phillip Wisely, John Pietrzac and John Harden won the 5th and 6th grade Hat Day.

Robert Osterhouse, Toni Floerke and Marty Bingham won the 7th and 8th grade Hat Day.

PARENT-DAUGHTER PARENT-SON

Wendy McConnell and her mother enjoy a night of bingo, chess, checkers, swimming, pingpong, and volleyball at Parent-Daughter Night.

Volleyball, checkers, ping-pong, chess and swimming were some of the things that William Cho and his father participated in on Parent and Son Night.
